

Constitution Day

2019

Constitution of India is the back bone of Indian Democracy. India being the biggest democracy of the world its existence and successful survival in such diverse conditions itself is something to be celebrated. To reinforce the significance and importance of our constitution, Constitution day is celebrated on 26th November every year throughout the nation. IAR celebrated 70th Anniversary of constitution day on 26th November 2019. This day is celebrated to commemorate adoption of Constitution of India and to acknowledge the contribution of founding fathers of the constitution.

The celebrations commenced with the traditional lamp lighting ceremony by Dr. Ruchi Singh (Acting Provost), Manoj Patel (Acting Registrar), Deans (Academics and Research) and H.O.D s of various Departments.

Constitution day is celebrated to mark our respect towards our constitution and its enshrined principles towards building “We the Nation”. The inauguration was followed by Oath on the preamble led by Dr. Ruchi Singh.

The gathering was addressed by Dean of Academics Dr. Gurudatt Gaur, wherein he briefed about the history of our constitution and explained why it is known as the backbone of Indian Democracy. His speech took us on a journey of our constitution from its history to present day form and its vital role to bring together INDIA as a single unit.

The book constitution of India was handed over to the Librarian Mrs. Reena Patel by Dr. Ruchi Singh and Dr. Gurudatt Gaur. A small quiz was arranged to assess everyone’s understanding of our own constitution and both students and faculties actively participated in it. This was followed by live streaming of Prime Minister Shri. Narendra Modi’s addressal of the cabinet.

The celebrations were wrapped up after the P. M’s speech and a small refreshment was also arranged for the gathering.
